BORN LEARNING TRAIL

The Born Learning Trail turns everyday experiences into teachable moments.

This interactive, paved pathway contains signs in English and Spanish with instructions for simple games that will turn an excursion at the park into fun learning moments for young children.

The trail's theme of Watch! Stop! Learn! Play! encourages parents and caregivers to follow the child's lead, building the child's curiosity and confidence, and reinforces learning opportunities present in everyday life.

The Born Learning Trail supports language, literacy and social skills development, and reminds us that learning can be fun!

Why Born Learning Trails?

We know increased investment in pre-K development fosters healthy growth, decreasing the likelihood of children being affected by various other adversities later on in life. Because of the power of early learning, United Way is making big investments in improving Early Grade Level Success. Born Learning Trails are a great and FREE early learning resource for families!

How You Can Help

Donate new or slightly used fiction or nonfiction books – either paperback or hardcover – they no longer want or need. Donors should not bring magazines, used activity books or reference books such as encyclopedias or college textbooks.

- United Way Office- 205 N 2nd St
- Host a book drive within your company or community organization.
- Contact info@uwnco.org
- Sponsor the drive to help expand our reach. Reach out to info@uwnco.org
- Volunteer to help sort and distribute books to local kids.
- Spread the Word by sharing posters or social media posts for the event.

UNITED WE READ is a campaign dedicated to providing the tools and resources for young children to read at grade-level by the start of fourth grade brought to you by United Way and its partners.

We know that reading is an essential tool for success in school, work and life. Research tells us that reading proficiently by the start of fourth grade an important predictor of high school graduation and career success.

Yet only 40 percent of fourth graders in Oklahoma are meeting this crucial milestone.

Get Involved:

For parents and caregivers:

- Read with your child for 20 minutes a day.
 - Talk and sing to your child starting at birth to help build their vocabulary.
 - Ensure that school age children are attending everyday (in-person or virtually).
 - Connect your children with quality early learning and out of school time programs.
 - Enroll in Dolly Parton Imagination Library to receive FREE books that will be mailed to you at home.
- Get your child registered at <https://imaginationlibrary.com>

Phillips 66 believes they have a unique and critical role to play in fostering a thriving society. They also believe in living their core values of safety, honor and commitment, while sharing their resources and acting as trusted counselors, collaborators, and problem-solvers. From a Philanthropy perspective, the company believes in helping to create stronger, safer, and more resilient communities.

Phillips 66 recognizes that their employees are the company's strongest connections. They encourage and support involvement and leadership in local non-profit organizations by providing matching gift and employee volunteer grant programs. These programs have benefited the Ponca City community and surrounding communities with hundreds of thousands of dollars each year for many years. Thousands of Phillips 66 employee and retiree volunteer hours are submitted each year and benefit numerous organizations in our community further putting their GOOD ENERGY in to action! Phillips 66 is truly working for the greater good.

Thank you to the Phillips 66 Ponca City Refinery for continuing to invest in Ponca City and in Kay County. Your financial support, volunteer support, employee support, and so much more makes such a tremendous difference and we thank you sincerely for all that you do and provide.

GRADES 7-12
July 6-10

COACH'S MESSAGE...

Our camps are designed to help the girls learn the basics of shooting, dribbling and passing, as well as other fundamental skills of basketball. We also apply those skills within a team structure as each of the girls is also a member of a team for the week and will play several games each day.

Basketball teaches the value of improving as an individual, as well as committing to what's best for the team. We believe when individuals experience the satisfaction of working hard and see the results of that hard work, many of them will continue working on their own.

- Greg Krause

We hope you can join us

UC Lego Robotics Camp Descriptions Summer 2025

LEGO WeDo

- 2nd – 4th Grade
- Choose from 2 dates: June 2-5 or July 14-17
- No prior experience necessary
- Students who have attended this camp in the past are welcome to attend again. Just be aware that the content is the same as prior years.
- The LEGO WeDo camp engages and motivates elementary students' interest in science and engineering related subjects. Students will build motorized LEGO models and use simple programming in problem solving scenarios. The challenges do not tell students everything they need to know. Instead, the instructor will help lead students to ask questions and explore what they do not yet understand in order to solve real-life problems.

Introductory Robotics and Programming LEGO Robotics (Level 1)

- 5th – 7th Grade
- June 9-12
- No prior experience necessary
- Students will work collaboratively to learn the basics of computer coding and build a robot that can interpret computer code. Students will discover the basic mechanics of motors for movement and sensors to help the robot interact with its surroundings. Students will use the basic driving base and sensors to complete challenges such as navigating through a maze, sensing colors, moving objects, creating a class synchronized dance, and more. Students will collaborate with partners and with the entire class to achieve goals.

Machines & Mechanisms LEGO Robotics (Level 2)

- 5th – 7th Grade
- June 16-19
- Completion of Introductory Robotics and Programming (Level 1) is required prior to Machines and Mechanisms (Level 2). Level 1 may be completed in prior summers or this summer.
- Students will go beyond the basics of coding and mechanics to build robots and machines to complete complex tasks and challenges. Students will learn about the collection, storage, and transfer of energy relating to renewable energy sources. Students will build and investigate various models to complete challenges including converting wind energy into electricity, measuring solar energy through solar panels, making renewable energy sources more efficient, making vehicles that run using renewable energy, and more. Students will learn pneumatic principles and how air pressure can be utilized for movement.

Space Challenge

- 5th – 7th Grade
- July 7-11
- Completion of Introductory Robotics and Programming (Level 1) is required prior to Space Challenge. Level 1 may be completed in prior summers or this summer.
- Students will investigate, observe, calculate, and apply problem-solving skills to make robots solve challenges related to space exploration. Students will use the driving base and sensors to complete challenges including initiating a shuttle launch to Mars, setting up a satellite for communication, delivering a space crew to the base, rescuing the Mars rover robot, and more. The University Center LEGO Robotics Camps are made possible in part by a grant from Phillips 66.

Note on Grades: Grades are based on students' grades for next school year (2025-2026). However, students in 5th grade for 2025-2026 may attend WeDo and/or the other camps. Also, students in 8th grade for 2025-2026 may attend the 5th-7th grade camps. Contact the UC if you have any questions.
